Seaman Recruit Kenneth Robert Morse, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Morse of 134 E. 213th St. is undergoing nine weeks of basic training at the San Diego Naval Training Center. He is receiving instructions in Naval customs, courtesies, and organization, ordnance and gunnery, seamanship, damage control, first aid, swimming and survival, ship-board drills and sentry duty.

JAMES J. POWELL
Pvt. James J. Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Powell, 2035 W. 166th St., has completed Army basic training at Fort Knox, Ky. He was graduated from North High in 1960, from El Camino College in 1962, and from the USC School of Business in 1964. He received his license as a certified public accountant (CPA) last June and before entering the military service was employed by Ernst & Ernst in Los Angeles. Powell was a member of the Circle K at El Camino and Beta Alpha Psi, national professional accounting fraternity, at USC. He has been recommended for direct appointment as a commissioned officer in the Army's finance department.

EDSON E. PINNEY
Airman 2C, Edward E. Pinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil E. Pinney of 1908 Clark Lane, Redondo Beach, is now in Vietnam. He is an Air Policeman.

Seaman Apprentice Lee J. Ellak, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ellak of 21122 Martin St., has completed a four-day "goodwill visit" to the Japanese port city of Niigata, as a crewmember aboard the destroyer, USS De Haven. This is the first such visit by a Navy vessel since 1963. While in Niigata, the De Haven held an "open house" with guided tours and exhibits emphasizing the De Haven's varied capabilities. One of the special exhibits was the crane used to recover Gemini space capsules and a full-scale model of the capsule. One of the Seventh Fleet's most experienced destroyers, the De Haven received the Navy Unit Commendation for her role in the Korean conflict. As a unit of Destroyer Squadron Nine, the De Haven is presently homeported in Yokosuka, Japan.

Second Lieutenant Earl L. Wycoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel N. Wycoff of 22208 Shadycroft Ave., has been graduated from the U. S. Air Force pilot instructor course at Randolph AFB, Tex.

Lieutenant Wycoff is now qualified to teach student pilots to fly jets. He is being assigned to Williams AFB, Ariz., as a member of the Air Training Command, which conducts hundreds of specialized courses to provide technically-trained personnel for the nation's aerospace force. The lieutenant, a graduate of South High School, received his commission in 1965 upon completion of Officer Training School at Lackland AFB, Tex. He earned his bachelor's degree in philosophy from Occidental College in 1964. He is a member of Phi Mu Alpha.

EDWARD L. ADAMS JR.
Cadet Edward L. Adams Jr., a graduate of South High School, has completed the U. S. Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps summer camp at Fairchild AFB, Wash. Cadet Adams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Adams of 23300 Henry Court.
